

Geography Curriculum Key Information

Subject	Geography
Exam Board Followed at KS4	OCR
Final Assessment Method at KS4	3 examination papers
What are the core concepts in this subject?	Knowledge of locations, places, processes, environments and different scales. Geographical understanding understanding of: • Concepts and how they are used in relation to places, environments and processes • The inter-relationship between places, environments and processes. Applying knowledge and understanding to interpretation, analysis and evaluation of geographical information and issues and to make judgements. Selection, adaptation and use of a variety of skills and techniques to investigate questions and issues and communicate findings.
How is the curriculum in this subject designed to allow pupils to know more, remember more and do more over time?	By interleaving themes and skills throughout topics. Revisiting specific case studies and social, economic and environmental themes.
How does the curriculum in this subject area prepare students to develop skills for life and prepare them for the world of work?	The following sectors are explicitly referenced in lessons: • Meteorology • Environmental sector • Construction • Planning sector • Sustainability and conservation • Construction & town planner • Public sector • GIS analyst, transport & logistics

	The curriculum promotes the following skills for life: • Self- belief • Team work • Communication • Problem solving • Self-management
Where can parents and carers find out more?	National Geographic BBC Bitesize Geography Your child also has access to the Loreto Learning Portal via RMuNify